And a big shout-out to all our VOLUNTEERS!

Did you hem a costume? Color with kids backstage? Work the box office? We appreciate you! Did you repair a prop? Check in dancers? Donate baked goods?

Work the spotlight?

We couldn't do it without you! A heartfelt thank you to all of you that pitched in to make this year a wonderful experience and a beautiful Summertime memory for both our dancers and our audience.

Cinderella

AND OTHER HOLLYWOOD HITS
NORTH COUNTY ACADEMY of DANCE 2023

FRIDAY, JULY 28th 6:00 PERFORMANCE

GREEN CAST - Friday, July 28th Evening & Saturday, July 29th Matinee
BLUE CAST - Saturday, July 29th Evening & Sunday, July 30th Matinee

Based on the beloved fairy-tale, and set to music by Sergei Prokofiev

Cinderella is a gentle and kind-hearted young woman who was born into a wealthy family. She tragically lost her mother at a very young age, and when her father remarried, he too took ill and passed away. This left poor Cinderella in the care of a domineering stepmother, who forces her to act as a servant in her own home. Cinderella's stepmother has two daughters who are equally unkind and disdainful towards Cinderella.

One day a messenger arrives with an invitation to a ball...where the Prince is to choose a new bride! When Cinderella's stepmother and stepsisters leave to prepare, Cinderella daydreams of the Prince, dancing with her broom. Knowing her stepmother would never let her attend, she returns to her chores.

CINDERELLA	Green Cast: Fernanda Rodriguez Blue Cast: Hannah Rodriguez
THE STEPMOTHER	Green Cast: Dacey Bender Blue Cast: Susie Urrutia
THE STEPSISTERS	Green Cast: Emma Droluk and Ava Palat Blue Cast: Sherrina and Shelby-Ray Mullins
THE MESSENGER	Cormac Adams
THE DANCE INSTRUCTORS	Green Cast: Amelia Bachman and Zion Hammes Blue Cast: Sarah Ronalds and Zion Hammes

That night Cinderella falls asleep at her work table, and dreams that the embers and the ashes from the fireplace come alive. Her Fairy Godmother sends her “dream fairies” to calm her sleep.

The day of the ball arrives, and the Stepmother has arranged for her girls to have a quick dancing lesson. Things do not go as planned, as the instructors notice Cinderella’s talent and beauty and give her more attention than her stepsisters! The two girls and their mother leave for the ball, and Cinderella is left alone, crying at her work table, wishing for a better life...

...Suddenly, Cinderella’s Fairy Godmother appears, magically transforming her home and calling to her service the four fairies of the seasons, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter. They gift Cinderella magical attire for the Ball, transforming her beyond recognition into a beautifully dressed princess. The Chime Fairies warn Cinderella that at the stroke of midnight all magic will cease, and she will be transformed back into her scullery maid attire. The Fairy Godmother magically transforms a pumpkin from the garden into a carriage, and Cinderella heads off to the ball.

The ballroom is a spectacle of elegance as waltzing dancers grace the floor. When Cinderella arrives the Prince is entranced by her beauty and charm. As the evening passes, Cinderella quickly becomes beloved by the entire court for her graciousness and charm, and the enamored Prince spends the entire evening by her side.
...but then the clock strikes midnight!

The next day, Cinderella daydreams of her Prince while the stepsisters reminisce over the ball. Suddenly, the Prince and his entourage arrive, announcing the effort to find his fled princess by trying her glass slipper on every maiden in the kingdom. The Stepsisters and Stepmother, to their dismay, do not fit the shoe. But it does not take long before the Prince notices the young maiden dressed in rags who is awaiting his attention....
...and the transformative power of love conquers all!

A vibrant stage scene from The Nutcracker ballet. Dancers in various costumes, including a ballerina in a purple tutu and a male dancer in a red and black outfit, are performing on a stage. The backdrop is colorful and ornate, featuring arches and decorative elements. The text "Save The Date" is overlaid in the top left, and "The Nutcracker Auditions will be held on September 8-9 at our Bonsall location. We would love for all of our continuing and new dancers (ages 4 and up) to participate in this beloved classical ballet." is overlaid at the bottom.

Save The Date

The Nutcracker Auditions will be held on September 8-9 at our Bonsall location.
We would love for all of our continuing and new dancers (ages 4 and up) to participate in this beloved classical ballet.

The NCAD Pre-Professional Training Program is designed for the home-schooled student ages 9+ who wants focused and well rounded dance training.

Small class sizes, detailed attention to correct technique and encouraging feedback are the hallmarks of the program, which offers a more complete, individualized approach to training in professional Classical Ballet and Contemporary.

Our goal is to provide the highest level of training while preparing our students for a potential career in dance, giving them the tools they need to successfully audition for summer programs, college dance programs, and professional dance companies.

Dancers in the program will train upwards of 11 hours a week, with classes that include classical ballet, pointe/ variations, lyrical, contemporary, as well as a rotation of cross-training courses including (but not limited to) pilates, progressive ballet technique, turn technique class, legs and leaps, stretching and strengthening, yoga for dancers, nutrition, choreography and composition, dance history, etc.

The benefits of our program stretch beyond the potential career dancer, because while students grow in artistry and technique, they will also develop self-discipline, strength of character, creativity, connections with other dancers and teachers- and so many other traits that will aid them no matter what vocation they choose. Come train with us!
